

ABSTRACT

Febiola Kartika, Post-Traumatic Stressed Disorder On The Main Character of Movie “Us”. A Scientific Writing. English Departement. Faculty of Letters and Cultures, Gunadarma University. Jakarta 2019.

---

This research finds out the psychological symptoms called Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), experienced by Adelaide as the main character on Us, a film by Jordan Peele. This research aims to describe the psychological condition of the main character, Adelaide, who suffers PTSD, through the symptoms that occur the character according to DSM-5. Also, this research aims to the way of the main character to set PTSD on Us, the film.

This research is using a literary psychology approach. The method used is the descriptive analysis method. The method is suitable with the research, which is to describe the main character and the behavior, also the cause of PTSD within the film.

After clasifying for data of PTSD on the movie ‘Us’, the researcher catagorized them into: A. The presence of symptoms namely recurring and disturbing memories ( 1 datum). B. Presistenly avoid stimuli related to trauma namely avoiding place and people (1 datum). C. Negative changes in cognition and mood related to traumatic event namely excessive negative beliefs about themselves, others, or the world (1 datum). D. Negative changes in cognition and mood related to traumatic event namely constant negative emotional states (1 datum). In which, those are based on the footage scene of movie ‘Us’that is according to Diagnostic Manual and Mental Disorders Statistics, Fifth Edition (DSM-5).

Key words: Post-Traumatic Stressed Disorder, PTSD Symptoms, Traumatic Event.