

ABSTRACT

Duto Wisnu Bhatoro, The Schizophrenia in Main Character Reflected in the Film Shutter Island Directed by Martin Scorsese. A Scientific Writing. English Department. Faculty of Letters and Cultures. Gunadarma University, Jakarta. 2019

This research is about Schizophrenia that Teddy Daniels received as a main character in Martin Scorsese's film Shutter Island (2010). The purposes of the research are to identify the types of schizophrenia disorder he have and to find out the symptoms of schizophrenia that the main character has as depicted on the film using The DSM-IV's for types of schizophrenia disorder and Schizophrenia for dummies's for symptoms of schizophrenia that the main character. This research uses qualitative-descriptive methods. The source of data is a film entitled Shutter Island directed by Martin Scorsese. Based on this analysis, the data shows there are 3 data that show type of schizophrenia that the character Teddy Daniels received such as: paranoid schizophrenia and 4 data that show positive symptoms of schizophrenia of the main character that Teddy Daniels received in the movie entitled Shutter Island such as: Positive symptoms of schizophrenia. People with positive symptoms are hallucination and delusion. Type of Andrew's hallucinations are auditory hallucinations and visual hallucinations and type of Andrew's Delusions are Delusions of Persecutory and Delusion of Grandiose.

Keyword: Schizophrenia, Film, Leonardo DiCaprio, Shutter Island.