

ABSTRACT

Raden Didan Rachmatullah NurBahari. An Analysis Figurative Language Used in The Seven Selected Song of “The Black Parade” by My Chemical Romance. A Scientific Writing. English Department. Faculty of Letters and Cultures. Gunadarma University. Jakarta. 2024.

Abstract

Figurative language involves the use of words or expressions that have a different meaning than their literal interpretation. This research was conducted to find out the true meaning of the songs that the songwriters want to convey to us. The researcher aims to analyze the figurative language that is used and what the most often figurative language used in the seven selected song of “The Black Parade” album by My Chemical Romance. This research used qualitative descriptive and used Perrine’s theory. The result of this research showed there are 47 data of figurative language, they are Metaphor (5), Symbol (2), Simile (1), Allegory (15), Personification (2), Metonymy (7), Synecdoche (1), Hyperbole (12), Irony (1), and Apostrophe (1). The most often figurative language used is Allegory.

Keyword: Figurative language, Song lyrics, My Chemical Romance, The Black Parade