This study aims to find out and interpret the meaning contained in the lyrics of the song "Bertaut" by Nadin Amizah which then has a match between the meaning of the song lyrics and reality. This study uses the semiotic method of Ferdinand de Saussure's thinking which explains that signs have three interrelated elements, namely signifiers, signifieds and significations. This study uses a qualitative descriptive approach and the Affections Exchange Theory. This research is strengthened by taking references from books, journals and articles. The results of this study from the lyrics of the song "Bertaut" by Nadin Amizah have interrelated meanings containing messages of love between mother and child.
