

ABSTRACT

Innayah, 12817929

Reporting Framing Analysis Rejects the Work Creation Omnibus Law Bill at Detik.com and Republika.co.id.

This study aims to determine how the news framing analysis of the rejection of the omnibus copyright law bill on detik.com and republika.co.id, in this study limits the news on rejecting the omnibus law copyright work on detik.com and republika.co.id edition of March 4, 2020 - March 10, 2020, because in this edition the two online news portals intensively reported on the action to reject the omnibus law on copyright work. The method used is a qualitative approach with the Zhongdang Pan and Gerald M. Kosicki framing analysis model. The paradigm of this research is positivistic, for the data collection method is the online data tracking method and documentation. The results of the research obtained from the construction of news regarding the Work Creation Omnibus Law Bill were news packaging conducted by Detik.com and Republika.co. id related to the Work Creation Omnibus Law Bill emphasizes the rejection of the Job Creation Omnibus Law Bill, and news framing of Detik.com and Republika.co.id is carried out by, among others: selection of news sources, selection of quotations from news sources, writing of citation sources in Detik.com has one news item that contains more than one source of news excerpts. Meanwhile, Republika.co.id, two news stories contain more than one source of news quotes, these sources can be used to support the framing structure built by Detik.com and Republika.co.id. com there is one news that contains more than one source of news quotes. Meanwhile, Republika.co.id, two news stories contain more than one source of news quotes, these sources can be used to support the framing structure built by Detik.com and Republika.co.id. com there is one news that contains more than one source of news quotes. Meanwhile, Republika.co.id, two news stories contain more than one source of news quotes, these sources can be used to support the framing structure built by Detik.com and Republika.co.id.

Keywords: framing, online news, reject work copyright omnibus law bill;