Love is a bond or emotional state of a person characterized by strong feelings involving attraction, affection, and commitment to someone or something. Love can come in many forms, such as love with a life partner. Love can also be defined as a deep sense of compassion and concern that makes one care and strive for the happiness and well-being of others. It often involves sacrifice, understanding, and responsibility. This research aims to find out the meaning of the lyrics of the song “Last Train Home” in the hope that it can help make listeners realize that romantic relationships are not as easy as imagined. The type of research used is qualitative research. While the method used is Ferdinand De Saussure's semiotic analysis. The results of this study show that the song “Last Train Home” contains the meaning of love in its lyrics, namely the sacrifice in running a relationship to get true love.
