ABSTRACT

Novel is a literary works that portray human life which contains cultural, moral, and educational value on its character and story. The writers imply moral values on their novel to make the readers understand about the value they are trying to convey. The objectives of the research are to find out what types of moral values contained in The Alchemist and The Pilgrimage novel by Paulo Coelho and to find out the most dominant type of moral values contained in The Alchemist and The Pilgrimage novel by Paulo Coelho. This research used the theory of moral values by Kinnier (2000). The researcher used descriptive qualitative method to analyze the data. The data source of the data are The Alchemist and The Pilgrimage novel by Paulo Coelho, while the data of this research are narrations and conversations in the novel which contained moral value. The result of this research showed that there are 75 sentences which contains moral value on the novel consists of 50 sentences which contains commitment to something greater than oneself, 25 of them are from The Alchemist while the other 25 are from The Pilgrimage, 10 sentences which contains self-respect with humility self-discipline and responsibility, 6 of them are from The Alchemist and 4 of them are from The Pilgrimage, 8 sentences which contains respect and caring for others 3 of them are from The Alchemist and 5 of them are from The Pilgrimage, and 7 sentences which contains caring for others creatures, and environment found both in narrations and conversations. And the most dominant moral value is commitment to something greater than oneself since there are 50 data which contain this type of moral value.

Keyword : Novel, Literary Works, Moral Value.